15th March 2020
3rd Sunday in Lent

Welcome to The Parish Church of Hampton-in-Arden and our worship today: please make yourself at home. If there is anything you are unsure about, or anything you would like to know before the service begins, the Welcomers at the door are here to help. We have a hearing-aid loop system in Hampton Church (switch to 'T') and large print hymn books are available. The toilet (with disabled and baby changing facilities) is through the glass door at the front of the church to the left.

THOSE IN OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK:

Those who are unwell Philip Russell, Margaret Possart, Chris Fellows, Barbara Gibbons, Alan Briscoe, Paul Robert Thomas, Flix Haynes, David Mort, Paul Thomas, and all who are on our Prayer Board.

Those who have died: We remember all who are recently departed, we think of their loved ones and friends who mourn them. We remember today all whose anniversaries of passing are at this time and all whom we love but see no more.

A special welcome today to anyone new to our church and to couples who are getting married at Hampton-in-Arden Parish Church

Notices

Coronavirus COVID19: Following the guidance from the Archbishops, the Common cup (The Chalice) is suspended so everyone will just receive the bread/wafer. This is still in line with Anglican teaching as Communion in one kind i.e. bread only is seen as the same as Communion with bread and wine. We will keep you updated in regards to services as and when directed by our Archbishops. An email will be circulated to P.C.C and others in the eventuality of a priest not being available to take a Eucharist.

Guidance for Church members regarding new Safeguarding rules.

To enable a hirer of our Church Hall to comply with their safeguarding responsibility not to allow unknown adults access to children, young people and 'at risk' adults, all church members should be made aware that they must not (except in the case of an emergency) enter the space the hirer is using whilst the activity is taking place without prior agreement. The hirer is not aware of which church members are 'trusted' adults that have been safely recruited and may not have sufficient 'staff' to supervise both visitors and the children, young people and/or 'at risk' adults simultaneously. Thank you.

Do you have an annual subscription to the Church and Village Chronicle? If you don't or haven't renewed your subscription, please consider it. This monthly magazine has been a part of Hampton village's life for more than 100 years; we try to keep it up to date and interesting, but we really need your support so that we can continue producing this historical record of Hampton for the foreseeable future. Let us know if you would like to receive it or contribute to it. Thank you. Chris Cluley and Bridget Osmond.

We were due to have a new surgery series on 'healthcare professionals and spirituality' starting on 30th of March. In view of the current coronavirus outbreak we have made the difficult decision to postpone these meetings until the autumn. Thank you for your understanding. Rodger Charlton
